

Edward Teach

Edward Teach is a gorgeous black stallion rescued off Swan beach after a brutal stallion fight in which he received a large wound on the right side of his neck. He is now fully recovered and is currently being trained under saddle by Steve Edwards of Mill Swamp Indian Horses located in Smithfield, VA. Edward is very gentle, extremely athletic, and has a natural predisposition for endurance. He is approximately twelve hands and is actively being ridden on trails with mares and stallions. His training will continue until adopted.

Our desire is that he will remain a stallion and become a part of the offsite breeding program.
