

Become a Sponsor: Be a hero of the mustangs by sponsoring a wild Banker horse of Corolla! In cases when a wild horse is observed to have a life-threatening illness or injury, intervention from the Corolla Wild Horse Fund is necessary. Rescued horses are brought to our farm on the mainland for treatment and sanctuary. Sponsors receive a handsome, embossed presentation folder with a photo of their chosen horse and an official certificate in their name. This sponsorship is symbolic, and donations help support the mission of the CWHF. Sponsorships can be renewed annually.

Horses Available for Sponsorship

Ducky is a 10-year-old stallion who came to the rescue farm in 2018 with his harem of mares and yearling son. In early 2018, he and his harem continued breaching the fence into Virginia. This repeated behavior led to the harem's relocation to the farm. At the farm, Ducky is an extremely personable stallion, making him a great ambassador for his breed.

Junior is a 17-year-old stallion, rescued in July 2021 from choking. He is son of the late, well-known stallion Amadeo. At the farm, he is one of the most thoughtful stallions we've worked with, and often reminds us of his beloved father in both his striking appearance and kind personality.

Luna is a 16-year-old mare born on Dews Island. She was brought to the rescue farm with her mother Moxie and six other mares in fall of 2017. She is a wonderful ambassador for her breed and has shown a patient and gentle nature, working especially well with children.

Rita is a 13-year-old mare taken off the beach after she was born with severely crooked hind legs. Once treated, she was adopted by a loving family. Her owner became terminally ill in 2018 and Rita returned to us for permanent sanctuary. She is our go-to-girl for educational programs.

Raymond is a 25-year-old mule, offspring of a wild Banker mare and a domestic donkey. After living among the Corollas in the wild for over two decades, he was taken to the farm in 2019 due to medical conditions that will require special care for the remainder of his life. At the farm, Raymond is particular about his company and lets us know when people are coming with his loud, distinctive bray.
