The Corolla Wild Horse Fund is the nonprofit that manages the wild herd of horses (Bankers) on the Northern Outer Banks, as well as a farm on the mainland that is a sanctuary for Bankers no longer fit to live in the wild due to critical illness, injury, or habituation requiring our intervention.

There are around 115 horses in Corolla's wild herd, and over 20 horses in our care on the farm.

Your membership supports many facets of our mission, including herd management, rescue, rehabilitation, veterinary care, DNA research, breed conservation, educating the public about the Bankers, and more.
